1. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Naka et al (5072557).

Naka et al (figure 2) shows a raised floor access floor panel comprising a substantially flat panel (2) having an upper load supporting surface and a lower surface to be supported on a plurality of pedestal support members (4) each adjacent to a corner of the panel, at least one panel lifter handle (6) having a top wall (6b) and two side walls (6a), the side walls slidably extending through a first and second slots (figure 13) rigidly attached to the lower surface of the floor panel (indirectly attached) for vertical travel of the top wall and side walls upwardly through a generally rectangular panel recess for removing the floor panel from the pedestal support members.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 7-9 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 8/24/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant states that Naka et al does not show the panel lifter extending upwardly from a recess in the floor panle to serve as a handle, examiner respectfully points out that applicant is not claiming a recess on the panel, nor a pedestal support member. The reference shows the limitations as claimed. If it is applicant's intention to claim the recess, applicant is encouraged to positively claim the recess. The argument is thus moot.
